1. General policy statement

This school is opposed to all types of prejudice and discrimination and acknowledges that pupils have different needs, requirements and objectives.

We promote good relations and mutual respect amongst and between our pupils, staff, governors and parents, our pupils' carers and guardians, irrespective of their protected characteristic (ethnicity, gender, age, marital status, sexual orientation, disability, gender change, religion or atheism, nationality and maternity) or their relationship with the above.

The school acknowledges the existence of diverse societies in Wales and the UK, which include individuals from various backgrounds. It is important that every child and young person have been adequately prepared to live in such a multicultural and diverse society.

Our aim at our school is to deal with discrimination and promote equal opportunity and good relations across all aspects of school life. We do this by:

- creating an ethos whereby every individual child and young person feels that he/she is appreciated and is safe;
- instilling a sense of self-respect and confidence in our children and young people, so that they may use these virtues to influence their relationship with others;
- having consistently high expectations of children and young people in terms of their conduct and learning;
- reducing the obstacles to learning, so as to allow every child and young person the same opportunity to achieve;
- ensuring suitable and balanced consideration of the learning needs of every child and young person, through our work plans and our lesson plans;
- identifying clear procedures to deal swiftly with incidents of discriminatory behaviour;
- instilling confidence amongst children and young people and staff to challenge prejudiced and aggressive behaviour;
- challenging stereotypes and promoting positive images;
